

NCAA Women's Tennis Selection Show To Be Shown On ESPNews

Flames await opponent in 10th straight NCAA appearance.

April 28, 2009

CHICAGO - The UIC women's tennis team will learn its 2009 NCAA Tournament first round opponent on ESPNews as the network will begin its selection show at 4:20 p.m. this afternoon.

The Flames will be making the program's 10th consecutive NCAA appearance on the heels of winning their 13th Horizon League Championship in a row this past Sunday.

ESPNews can be found on channel 402 via Comcast, 207 for DirectTV users and channel 142 for Dish Network subscribers.

Kristen McPhillips and the Flames will learn their first round NCAA tournament opponent today at 4:20 p.m. on ESPNews.